By completing this application you are expressing your desire to welcome into your family a puppy from Balinbrae Westies. Balinbrae is committed to breeding healthy, vibrant dogs who meet the breed standard as set forth by the American Kennel Club.

The attention given to each litter is extended into selecting the right home for each puppy. Balinbrae is concerned that all potential owners are familiar with the breed and have the proper facilities, time and resources to care for a West Highland White Terrier for the duration of its full life span (12 to 17 years). Puppies are placed on a “first-come, first served” basis to qualified show/performance homes and then to pet homes.

All potential owners are asked to complete the following questionnaire and mail or email it to Nora Balin Stone. The information provided will be used to determine those homes that meet Balinbrae’s qualifications for a puppy. Balinbrae reserves the right to refuse to place a puppy with anyone who does not meet our qualifications. For those who qualify, the information will also assist us in selecting a puppy that is best suited for you.
